Registrants Rights and Responsibilities

Registrants' Rights:

Your domain name registration must be subject to a Registration Agreement with a .af Accredited Registrar. You are entitled to review this Registration Agreement at any time, and download a copy for your records. You are entitled to accurate and accessible information about:

- The identity of your .af Accredited Registrar
- Your Registrar's terms and conditions, including pricing information, applicable to domain name registrations
- The terms and conditions, including pricing information, applicable to any privacy services offered by your Registrar
- The customer support services offered by your Registrar and the privacy services provider, and how to access them
- How to raise concerns and resolve disputes with your Registrar and any privacy services offered by them
- Instructions that explain your Registrar's processes for registering, managing, transferring, renewing, and restoring your domain name registrations

You shall not be subject to false advertising or deceptive practices by your or privacy services made available by your Registrar. This includes deceptive notices, hidden fees, and any practices that are illegal on .af domain registration policy.

Registrants' Responsibilities:

- You must comply with the terms and conditions posted by your Registrar, including applicable policies from your Registrar and AfgNIC
- You must review your Registrar's current Registration Agreement, along with any updates
- You will assume sole responsibility for the registration and use of your domain name
- You must provide accurate information for publication in directories such as WHOIS, and promptly update this to reflect any changes.
- You must respond to inquiries from your Registrar within fifteen (15) days, and keep your Registrar account data current
